

LOCAL MENTION

W. M. Irvine, of Sebort, was in town yesterday.

B. M. Yeager is on a business trip to Elkins this week.

W. A. Geiger was down from Dumore on business, Tuesday.

M. E. Puc returned Monday from a business trip to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Odes Gibson have moved into rooms in the Dr. J. W. Price building.

Sheriff Ed Arbogast, of Highland county, was in town several days this week on business.

George W. Wagner has bought two lots on Lower Camden avenue and expects to build this season.

Mrs. Elna F. Athery, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ryan.

Mrs. J. A. Sydenstricker and Mrs. E. C. Ambrose were visiting in Roncoverte a few days last week.

The Rev. G. W. Marston, of Webster Springs, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Weiford at Warwick.

S. H. Hiner came down from Durbin to attend the funeral of his little nephew, Julian Slavin, Monday.

Levi Waugh and Brown N. Galford, the veterans to attend the Religion at Mobile, returned Sunday, and report a fine time.

Jas. Gibson, G. W. Clark and A. D. Williams were in Washington Saturday and Sunday at the dedication of the Pierpoint statue.

Sherman Gibson and M. F. Herold, of Knapps Creek, were in town Tuesday night. Mr. Gibson is preparing to build a fine residence.

From the Greenbrier Independent we learn that J. E. Peck and D. L. Barlow contemplate opening a real estate office in Huntington.

Uriah Hevener, Jr., was in town Tuesday. He was one of Census enumerators of his district and has practically completed his work.

Theodore Moore has secured a good position with the United States Geological Survey, Topographical Department, and will report for duty at Welch, W. Va. May 9.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hunter and little daughter returned to Sweet Chalebate, Virginia, Wednesday morning. They hope to be able to move back to Marlinton some time this year.

Rev. and Mrs. Chappell, of Greenbrier county, are visiting friends in this community. About twenty four years ago Mr. Chappell had the Edray circuit, and it was during his pastorate that the church building was erected.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo McLaughlin and little daughter, of Greenbrier, and E. H. McLaughlin, of Academy, were in town Tuesday. Mr. McLaughlin recently purchased C. L. Clark's place near Academy, and will move there as soon as the place is vacated.

Miss Alice Williams, of Mossy Creek, Augusta county, Virginia, was here over Sunday to see her niece, Miss Bertie Snedegar. At one time Miss Williams lived with her brother at the McLaughlin Mill near Onoto. She is now at the head of a flourishing school.

The law firm of Price, Osenton & McPeak, by reason of the death of Mr. McPeak, will be from now on Price, Osenton & Horan. The new member is A. J. Horan, a prominent lawyer of Fayetteville, formerly of Nicholas county.

John Conley, of Lobelia, was in town Friday, the day he turned the seventy-fifth mile stone of his journey of life. He was born in Kanawha county and raised in what was then a wilderness forty miles from the settlement. His first trip to Pocahontas was as a soldier in the Yankee army, under Averill, in 1863, marching from Beverly.

Beverly Waugh, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee, was in town Friday. In speaking of the method his party would adopt to nominate its candidates, he said he would recommend a primary at the meeting of the Executive Committee, and in view of the demand voiced by the voters of his party generally, it was almost certain the committee would order a primary.

At noon Wednesday May 4, 1910, Marion E. Shinberry and Miss Willie L. Kelley were united in marriage at Inframonte Cottage West Marlinton, by Rev. Wm. T. Price, officiating minister. The groom is a son of the late Abram Shinberry and Mrs. Mildred Shinberry, near Poage Lane. He is an industrious young farmer and a much respected citizen with good prospects. Miss Kelley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Kelley, of the Mt. Tabor vicinity, and is a very attractive and much esteemed young person. Soon after the ceremony the party set out for the home of the bride where a reception was in readiness. Many are the friends who wish these pleasant young people happiness and prosperity.

The community on Elk is stirred over a case of careless or malicious shooting. On Monday the half grown son of James W. Jackson was going from his home to that of his nearest neighbor, Andrew Lone. He heard the report of a gun and at that instant a bullet passed through the rim of his close-fitting cap, knocking him down. He was stunned a little, but not sufficiently hurt to prevent a good run to cover in the nearby woods. It is not known whether it was a case of reckless use of firearms or an attempt at bushwhacking. We understand that Mr. Lone has reason to believe it was the latter, and that he would be assuaged in thought he was shooting at the son of Lone, who is about the same age and size of young Jackson.

John Clark had his leg badly broken while working for Brown, Depp & Swanson at Sixty, Tuesday morning. He was clearing away the sawdust from under the carriage, which started of its own accord and ran him down. Both bones of his leg were broken in two places. It is likely that amputation will be necessary. Dr. Norman Price gave him prompt attention, and the patient is now at the Marlinton Hospital. Clark is about 30 years old, a native of Elk county, Pennsylvania, and has been working at August a number of years.

Messrs. Cameron L. Clark and Thomas A. Sydenstricker, of Academy, W. Va. have recently been the guests of their uncle, Mr. E. L. Beard, at "Eastern View," near town, and while here Mr. Clark combined business with pleasure by buying the Capt. Peery farm in this county. This farm is considered by many to be a very fine property and that Mr. Clark is exceedingly fortunate in securing it. He will take possession of his new property about August 1st and the Exposition presents for him a warm welcome by the people of old Calpepper-Calpepper Export.

A total eclipse of the moon, visible to all observers in the United States, will occur on the evening of May 23. The eclipse begins at 10 hours 45 minutes 24 seconds p. m. (Eastern time); it will become wholly immersed in the shadow and the eclipse become total on May 24 at 12:09.

Service at St. John's church Sunday, May 8th at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. At the morning service Mother's Day will be observed with sermon and music appropriate to the occasion. All Modern Woodmen and the public invited to commemorate this important day. Mother's Day service at Campbelltown at 3:30 p. m.

JACOB A. HIATT, Rector.

Man Killed at Dunlevie.

Henry Fletcher, alias Slim Williams, was killed in a drunken fight with William Davis, known as Frenchy, at Dunlevie, Monday night. Fletcher was a sub-contractor in the Craig lumber woods and had employed Davis as a woodsman. Before leaving town Fletcher got in a fight, and Davis attempted to take him to camp. According to Davis when they were a short distance above the depot, Fletcher struck him with a beer bottle and attempted to kill him with a knife, and in defending himself, Davis beat Fletcher, left him and went back to town. In a short time the body of Fletcher was found, and though a physician was had immediately, life was gone. His head and face were terribly beaten. Davis was arrested and held without bail for the grand jury.

Fletcher is from Greenbrier county and bears a bad reputation. He was present and is thought to have been implicated in a murder for which one Kenas Douglas was sent to the penitentiary some years since. He was about 45 years old.

William Davis is of French-Canadian stock, and hails from Michigan. He has worked in the woods of this county a number of years, and has a reputation for fighting.

Julian Slavin, little five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Slavin, died Sunday evening at five o'clock from the effects of burns received a few hours previously. Upon his return from Sunday School the little boy got hold of a box of matches and went out into the yard. He ignited the whole box, which set fire to his clothes. A heavy wind fanned the fire into a blaze which enveloped the little fellow. Some neighbors ran to his assistance, but it was too late to do his deadly work.

On Monday the funeral service was at the Presbyterian church under the direction of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The school mates of the little boy's brother attended the service in a body, and the bearers were his little friends and playmates. A great many people were at the church, and every place of business was closed, so general was the sympathy for the bereaved parents. The little body was laid to rest in the Marlinton cemetery.

Had he lived until August Julian Slavin would have been five years old. A particularly bright and attractive little fellow was he but the ties which bound him to earth never seemed strong, as he was always considered rather delicate. Upon him, then was lavished the affection always felt for the younger, more helpless child. Then, too, it often seems that the children who are to be taken to the Other Side in childhood have reflected in their natures while yet with us the heavenly disposition that will be attained over there. Recently the parents had been overjoyed with the promise of coming health and strength. Their grief is made all the deeper by the suddenness of his leave taken. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Married, at the residence of the bride in Strasburg, Va., E. H. Beard, of Academy, and Miss Laura H. McInturff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli McInturff, by the Rev. A. Knox.

The play given by the upper grades of the school Saturday night was largely attended and $75 realized for the library fund.

Man Killed at Dunlevie.

Henry Fletcher, alias Slim Williams, was killed in a drunken fight with William Davis, known as Frenchy, at Dunlevie, Monday night. Fletcher was a sub-contractor in the Craig lumber woods and had employed Davis as a woodsman. Before leaving town Fletcher got in a fight, and Davis attempted to take him to camp. According to Davis when they were a short distance above the depot, Fletcher struck him with a beer bottle and attempted to kill him with a knife, and in defending himself, Davis beat Fletcher, left him and went back to town. In a short time the body of Fletcher was found, and though a physician was had immediately, life was gone. His head and face were terribly beaten. Davis was arrested and held without bail for the grand jury.

Fletcher is from Greenbrier county and bears a bad reputation. He was present and is thought to have been implicated in a murder for which one Kenas Douglas was sent to the penitentiary some years since. He was about 45 years old.

William Davis is of French-Canadian stock, and hails from Michigan. He has worked in the woods of this county a number of years, and has a reputation for fighting.

Julian Slavin, little five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Slavin, died Sunday evening at five o'clock from the effects of burns received a few hours previously. Upon his return from Sunday School the little boy got hold of a box of matches and went out into the yard. He ignited the whole box, which set fire to his clothes. A heavy wind fanned the fire into a blaze which enveloped the little fellow. Some neighbors ran to his assistance, but it was too late to do his deadly work.

On Monday the funeral service was at the Presbyterian church under the direction of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The school mates of the little boy's brother attended the service in a body, and the bearers were his little friends and playmates. A great many people were at the church, and every place of business was closed, so general was the sympathy for the bereaved parents. The little body was laid to rest in the Marlinton cemetery.

Had he lived until August Julian Slavin would have been five years old. A particularly bright and attractive little fellow was he but the ties which bound him to earth never seemed strong, as he was always considered rather delicate. Upon him, then was lavished the affection always felt for the younger, more helpless child. Then, too, it often seems that the children who are to be taken to the Other Side in childhood have reflected in their natures while yet with us the heavenly disposition that will be attained over there. Recently the parents had been overjoyed with the promise of coming health and strength. Their grief is made all the deeper by the suddenness of his leave taken. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Married, at the residence of the bride in Strasburg, Va., E. H. Beard, of Academy, and Miss Laura H. McInturff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli McInturff, by the Rev. A. Knox.

The play given by the upper grades of the school Saturday night was largely attended and $75 realized for the library fund.

Thanks Card.

Editor Times:

We wish to publicly express our thanks and appreciation to the people of Hinton and Marlinton for their kindness and sympathy extended to us in our sorrow by the death of our son and brother, Lewis V. Simmons.

MR. AND MRS. LEWIS SIMMONS AND FAMILY.

Editor Times:

Allow us space to publicly extend our thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their unceasing kindness and sympathy to us in the hour of bereavement and sorrow over the death of our little son, Julian.

R. B. SLAVIN AND WIFE.

Married, at the home of George W. Curry, in the Levels, Sunday afternoon, May 1, Cecil Hiner and Miss Grace Cleek, the Rev. J. C. Johnson officiating minister.

Man Killed at Dunlevie.

Henry Fletcher, alias Slim Williams, was killed in a drunken fight with William Davis, known as Frenchy, at Dunlevie, Monday night. Fletcher was a sub-contractor in the Craig lumber woods and had employed Davis as a woodsman. Before leaving town Fletcher got in a fight, and Davis attempted to take him to camp. According to Davis when they were a short distance above the depot, Fletcher struck him with a beer bottle and attempted to kill him with a knife, and in defending himself, Davis beat Fletcher, left him and went back to town. In a short time the body of Fletcher was found, and though a physician was had immediately, life was gone. His head and face were terribly beaten. Davis was arrested and held without bail for the grand jury.

Fletcher is from Greenbrier county and bears a bad reputation. He was present and is thought to have been implicated in a murder for which one Kenas Douglas was sent to the penitentiary some years since. He was about 45 years old.

William Davis is of French-Canadian stock, and hails from Michigan. He has worked in the woods of this county a number of years, and has a reputation for fighting.

Julian Slavin, little five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Slavin, died Sunday evening at five o'clock from the effects of burns received a few hours previously. Upon his return from Sunday School the little boy got hold of a box of matches and went out into the yard. He ignited the whole box, which set fire to his clothes. A heavy wind fanned the fire into a blaze which enveloped the little fellow. Some neighbors ran to his assistance, but it was too late to do his deadly work.

On Monday the funeral service was at the Presbyterian church under the direction of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The school mates of the little boy's brother attended the service in a body, and the bearers were his little friends and playmates. A great many people were at the church, and every place of business was closed, so general was the sympathy for the bereaved parents. The little body was laid to rest in the Marlinton cemetery.

Had he lived until August Julian Slavin would have been five years old. A particularly bright and attractive little fellow was he but the ties which bound him to earth never seemed strong, as he was always considered rather delicate. Upon him, then was lavished the affection always felt for the younger, more helpless child. Then, too, it often seems that the children who are to be taken to the Other Side in childhood have reflected in their natures while yet with us the heavenly disposition that will be attained over there. Recently the parents had been overjoyed with the promise of coming health and strength. Their grief is made all the deeper by the suddenness of his leave taken. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Married, at the residence of the bride in Strasburg, Va., E. H. Beard, of Academy, and Miss Laura H. McInturff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli McInturff, by the Rev. A. Knox.

The play given by the upper grades of the school Saturday night was largely attended and $75 realized for the library fund.

Man Killed at Dunlevie.

Henry Fletcher, alias Slim Williams, was killed in a drunken fight with William Davis, known as Frenchy, at Dunlevie, Monday night. Fletcher was a sub-contractor in the Craig lumber woods and had employed Davis as a woodsman. Before leaving town Fletcher got in a fight, and Davis attempted to take him to camp. According to Davis when they were a short distance above the depot, Fletcher struck him with a beer bottle and attempted to kill him with a knife, and in defending himself, Davis beat Fletcher, left him and went back to town. In a short time the body of Fletcher was found, and though a physician was had immediately, life was gone. His head and face were terribly beaten. Davis was arrested and held without bail for the grand jury.

Fletcher is from Greenbrier county and bears a bad reputation. He was present and is thought to have been implicated in a murder for which one Kenas Douglas was sent to the penitentiary some years since. He was about 45 years old.

William Davis is of French-Canadian stock, and hails from Michigan. He has worked in the woods of this county a number of years, and has a reputation for fighting.

Julian Slavin, little five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Slavin, died Sunday evening at five o'clock from the effects of burns received a few hours previously. Upon his return from Sunday School the little boy got hold of a box of matches and went out into the yard. He ignited the whole box, which set fire to his clothes. A heavy wind fanned the fire into a blaze which enveloped the little fellow. Some neighbors ran to his assistance, but it was too late to do his deadly work.

On Monday the funeral service was at the Presbyterian church under the direction of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The school mates of the little boy's brother attended the service in a body, and the bearers were his little friends and playmates. A great many people were at the church, and every place of business was closed, so general was the sympathy for the bereaved parents. The little body was laid to rest in the Marlinton cemetery.

Had he lived until August Julian Slavin would have been five years old. A particularly bright and attractive little fellow was he but the ties which bound him to earth never seemed strong, as he was always considered rather delicate. Upon him, then was lavished the affection always felt for the younger, more helpless child. Then, too, it often seems that the children who are to be taken to the Other Side in childhood have reflected in their natures while yet with us the heavenly disposition that will be attained over there. Recently the parents had been overjoyed with the promise of coming health and strength. Their grief is made all the deeper by the suddenness of his leave taken. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Married, at the residence of the bride in Strasburg, Va., E. H. Beard, of Academy, and Miss Laura H. McInturff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli McInturff, by the Rev. A. Knox.

The play given by the upper grades of the school Saturday night was largely attended and $75 realized for the library fund.

YOU CAN PREVENT LOSSES

from bad investments, from your own rashness, carelessness, lack of caution—it rests with YOU to exercise the requisite forethought, the carefulness of judgement that eliminates the causes of such losses

But you cannot prevent losses from accident, fire, flood, storm or other cause over which you have no control. There is only one thing that can protect you against such losses and that is the right kind of INSURANCE. Right there is where we can help YOU.

We write INSURANCE of all kinds—and we can probably save you money on the kind you need. Anyway, there's no harm in asking us. It will cost you nothing to find out.

Hunter & Echols Insurance Agency
INCORPORATED
GENERAL INSURANCE
District Agents Bank of Marlinton Bldg
Northwestern Mutual Life Ins. Co. Marlinton, W. Va.

Man Killed at Dunlevie.

Henry Fletcher, alias Slim Williams, was killed in a drunken fight with William Davis, known as Frenchy, at Dunlevie, Monday night. Fletcher was a sub-contractor in the Craig lumber woods and had employed Davis as a woodsman. Before leaving town Fletcher got in a fight, and Davis attempted to take him to camp. According to Davis when they were a short distance above the depot, Fletcher struck him with a beer bottle and attempted to kill him with a knife, and in defending himself, Davis beat Fletcher, left him and went back to town. In a short time the body of Fletcher was found, and though a physician was had immediately, life was gone. His head and face were terribly beaten. Davis was arrested and held without bail for the grand jury.

Fletcher is from Greenbrier county and bears a bad reputation. He was present and is thought to have been implicated in a murder for which one Kenas Douglas was sent to the penitentiary some years since. He was about 45 years old.

William Davis is of French-Canadian stock, and hails from Michigan. He has worked in the woods of this county a number of years, and has a reputation for fighting.

Julian Slavin, little five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Slavin, died Sunday evening at five o'clock from the effects of burns received a few hours previously. Upon his return from Sunday School the little boy got hold of a box of matches and went out into the yard. He ignited the whole box, which set fire to his clothes. A heavy wind fanned the fire into a blaze which enveloped the little fellow. Some neighbors ran to his assistance, but it was too late to do his deadly work.

On Monday the funeral service was at the Presbyterian church under the direction of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The school mates of the little boy's brother attended the service in a body, and the bearers were his little friends and playmates. A great many people were at the church, and every place of business was closed, so general was the sympathy for the bereaved parents. The little body was laid to rest in the Marlinton cemetery.

Had he lived until August Julian Slavin would have been five years old. A particularly bright and attractive little fellow was he but the ties which bound him to earth never seemed strong, as he was always considered rather delicate. Upon him, then was lavished the affection always felt for the younger, more helpless child. Then, too, it often seems that the children who are to be taken to the Other Side in childhood have reflected in their natures while yet with us the heavenly disposition that will be attained over there. Recently the parents had been overjoyed with the promise of coming health and strength. Their grief is made all the deeper by the suddenness of his leave taken. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Married, at the residence of the bride in Strasburg, Va., E. H. Beard, of Academy, and Miss Laura H. McInturff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli McInturff, by the Rev. A. Knox.

The play given by the upper grades of the school Saturday night was largely attended and $75 realized for the library fund.

NEW NEWS OF YESTERDAY

Ten Year Dream That Made Ingersoll Famous.

By E. J. EDWARDS.

Any standard American encyclopedia or biographical dictionary will tell you that Col. "Bob" Ingersoll was one of America's most famous orators. Certain it is that in many respects Ingersoll stands out as the greatest orator America has yet produced. Emotionally, this is so, and as a Shakespearean orator, so called, it is generally conceded that none has equaled him.

As everybody familiar with Ingersoll's career knows, he gained national fame through his "Plumed Knight" speech. The day before he delivered it he was unknown; the day after his name was on the lips of the country but not until now has it been told how Ingersoll came to conceive his masterpiece, how he built it up sentence by sentence through a period of years, and then, to please his brother, clinched his hold on fame by writing it down in a few minutes.

One Memorial day, two or three years after he had begun the practice of law in New York city, Col. Ingersoll stood on a corner watching the veterans of the civil war as they marched past the reviewing stand. There were tears in his eyes as he looked upon the old soldiers, and turning to me he repeated the opening sentence of his justly celebrated Memorial day address, which you can see engraved in bronze in the National cemetery at Arlington: "The past rises before me like a dream." He saw, almost as vividly as he had seen in the days of the war itself, the soldiers on their march, rallying to the attack, charging, falling, dying for their country.

As he walked away in my company after the procession had passed I asked him if it were true that he wrote his famous "Plumed Knight" speech at about midnight one night, as had been incidentally reported.

Seizing my arm and moving slowly through Madison square, Col. Ingersoll said:

"That story is partly correct. But the real truth is that I was ten years writing that speech. I had been a great admirer of James G. Blaine from the time he was first a member of congress. I thought he was a typical American and would make a great president. I pictured to myself Blaine in political action.

"I went to the Republican national convention of 1876, at Cincinnati, in the company of my brother. We shared a parlor and had two bedrooms at the hotel. My brother knew that I had been asked to place Blaine in nomination. He became very nervous because I did not sit down and write out my speech. He was continually prodding me to do this, but I put him off. But I was really writing that speech all the time, mentally. I composed part of it on the railway train on the way to Cincinnati. All the ideas that had come to me from time to time respecting Blaine I mentally gathered and sifted, and decided upon the expression of my thought.

"On the evening of the day before the nominating speeches were to be made my brother said to me: 'Bob, you have got to write that speech before you go to bed.'

"'All right,' I said, 'I'll write it this evening.' So, a little before midnight I took pen and ink and two or three sheets of paper and wrote out the speech. I was simply copying what was in my mind, what I had been years writing. You know, that is the way Webster prepared his famous reply to Hayne. After I had done that I went to bed and was soon sound asleep. I simply did it to please my brother, and that is the way that they call the 'Plumed Knight' speech was put down on paper at midnight in ten minutes."

(Copyright, 1909, by E. J. Edwards.)

Pat Gay and Miss Icie Rhoda Hannah were married at the home of the groom on Wednesday, May 4, 1910, at high noon. Quite a number of invited friends were present to witness the ceremony that made them man and wife, and also to enjoy the excellent dinner that was served. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. Cackley, D. D. of the M. E. Church South of this place.

W. W. Whitehill, of Durbin, a lumber inspector, has been missing from his home since April 15. He was last seen at Boyer Siding, walking on the railway, April 22. His friends are very uneasy about him.

Married, C. W. Kennison, of Academy, to Mrs. Mrs. Bettie Gillespie, of Modoc.

121-2 White Curtain
Swiss at 8c. yd.

GOLDEN'S

Misses' Swiss ribbed summer vests, each 5c.

We always keep an eye on the quality of our goods. We are not satisfied with "seconds" at the price of first-class standard articles. We know the importance of supplying good goods, and acting upon this knowledge, we retain the good will and confidence of those who buy from us.

Millinery

Your every known want in this line we can supply. Hats, trimmed and untrimmed, in endless variety, for ladies, misses and children, prices 20 to 40 per cent. below what others ask, it will pay you to examine our line.

Women's Waists

You will be surprised at the showing of beautiful new waists in all the popular summer fabrics. Ask to see the new "Duchess" Waist very chic and only $1.00

Women's Collars.

Every thing that is new this season we are showing. Some very neatly collar at only 25c.

Misses' Waists

A pretty and desirable model of white India linen, age 8 to 14 years, each 48c.

If You Are

wearing WALK-OVER shoes now we know that you will wear them this coming season also. They are showing you that our superiority claims for them are justifiable. Wearing is knowing. Let your next pair be WALK-OVERS also. You can't do better.

Prices $3.50, $4, $4.50, $5.50

Children's Caps

Childs embroidered lawn cap of very attractive, Irish effect embroidery each 25c.

Childs' Straw Bonnets

of fancy interwoven straw swiss lining and strings each 48c.

Here's another new Walk-Over Oxford.
The "Bridge" Model. Price $4.00

OUR POLICY

Give a man more than he expects when he comes here to buy a Suit

To find out what full value really means in clothing visit our store and examine our stock. Men of fashion and men who pride themselves on the excellent appearance of the clothes they wear are the men who will be interested in our splendid stock. Whether you pay $5.50 on $15.00 you get full value for your money.

$2.50 $3.00 $3.50

Test the advantages of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes for yourself. That will convince you that our claims for them are in no wise exaggerated. We can show you styles for every possible taste, season and occasion.

The Golden's Busy Corner

Blacklegoids

ONE ANIMAL LOST WOULD HAVE PAID FOR VACCINATING THE WHOLE HERD AND LEFT YOU A GOOD PROFIT BESIDES.

IT IS ECONOMY TO USE BLACKLEGOIDS.

It will cost you nothing to investigate. Come in and talk it over or drop us a postal asking for circulars.

S. B. WALLACE & COMPANY,
Marlinton, W. Va.

KRESO DIP No. 1

GOING AFTER THE LICE.

You need something to clean up disinfect and kill parasites.

KRESO DIP No. 1 will do the work.

DEPENDABLE SURE INEXPENSIVE EASY TO USE

We have a special booklet on diseases of Poultry. Call or write for one.

S. B. WALLACE & CO.,
Marlinton, W. Va.

Announcement

EDITOR TIMES:

Please say to the People of Pocahontas county, that we will open business at Marlinton, W. Va., May 15, 1910, to buy and pay cash for all kinds of Medicinal Roots, Herbs, Barks, Flowers.

Also Wool, Feathers, Hides, Tallow, Old Rubber Boots and Shoes and Old Metal. We will remain during the season.

Pikeville, Ky. R. T. GREER & CO.,

SPECIAL NOTICE

The special prices on wire fence for the month of March are with drawn. On and after April 1, the price is advanced 1 cent per rod.

This applies to all kinds except poultry fence. This remains the same.

C. J. Richardson,
HARDWARE AND FURNITURE.

WANTED—A hardwood lumber inspector of ten years experience, wants a position. Can furnish good reference. Address Postoffice box 197, Covington, Va.

COLLIE PUPS—Pure bred Scotch Collie pups, two months old. Special low price for quick sale. Apply at once to E. H. Moore, Frost, W. Va.